Betting advice is like scrambled eggs.

Promos are the same way.

The market is fresh, and it hasn't been bet into yet.

Books spend Sunday evening and even Monday morning adjusting opening numbers to the big bets and sharp action coming in, so get in before they move!

The mathematicians and EV+ bettors will correctly tell you that you lose value when hedging and it's not worth the price.

But you're also putting cash in your pocket and avoiding losing that last 1 eg.

Example: Teasing a 8.

5 (through key numbers 7 and 3) or from 1.
