Chase and Amazon have made some interesting changes to the credit cards formerly known as the Amazon Prime Rewards Visa Signature Card* and Amazon Rewards Visa

Signature Card*. First of all, they have new names: Prime Visa and Amazon Visa, respectively.

Both cards' introductory bonuses have been enhanced as well. In addition to a $150 Amazon gift card for new Prime Visa cardholders and a $60 Amazon gift car d for new Amazon Visa cardholders, there are now additional spending rebates on both cards.

How to use your rewards

Like most credit cards - especially store cards - the interest rates are hefty, so the rewards are only worth it if you can pay in full and avoid interest each month. These cards charge a regular variable APR between 18.99 percent and 26.99 percent, depending on your creditworthiness.

In general, I'm a big fan of using a credit card like a debit card (paying i) Tj T* BT /F1 1
