When happy, confirm your wager.

We can clearly see more bettors wagering online than at retail sportsbooks in most states which allow both online and in-person wagering (as Maryland now does).

Currency: Danish krone DKK

Denmark can always be set as an example for the rest of the world regarding living standards and population happiness.

Some of the best bookmakers are licensed by the Spillemyndigheden; however, Danes also like to check out other international bookmakers and focus on this market

Now they are treated as income, and the relevant tax (up to 62%) applies.

Starting with credit/debit cards, Visa, Mastercard and AmEx are all available on online betting sites Denmark features.

Most reputable Danish betting sites applied for a local license, and they remained the prime choice of players.

Where does that leave you? While it is still unclear whether this tax will apply in general, a mass exodus followed, and international sportsbooks saw an influx of Danish players.

Locally licensed bookies have protested the tax increase as it has driven away members, and the subject is in limbo, at least for now.
