Some cards, like the Early Bird, Reverse Teaser, and $100,000 Parlay are reserved solely for NFL games, while the other cards can contain both pro and college games.

You're typically allowed to include both spreads and totals from the same game in a single card, but we've found that it often depends on the game.

If you decide to back the Steelers for the upset, they must win or lose by less than 4 points to cover the spread.

Betting on the over/under is equally as simple.

The lines are adjusted anywhere from 5 to 7 points in your favor.

Can I Pay with More than One STORE Gift Card?

Can I Pay with More than One VISA Gift Card?

YES with this Gift Card Hack: Many people think that you cannot use a Visa gift card online if the transaction exceeds the dollar value on the Visa gift card. While that is true, the problem is more of a technical issue than a limitation of the gift card.

Without a little creativity, there is generally no way to use more than one Visa card to complete an online purchase. I have never seen an online shopping cart that allowed more than one bank card, of any type, to be applied to a purchase.

Here are all the gift cards we sell plus a list of top store and restaurant gift cards.
