What Sports Can You Bet On Using HB?

Horses: It is the most popular type of handicap betting.

Tennis: Occurs when two tennis players compete against each other.

For example, if Team A wins a best-of-three match 2:0 against Team B, but Team

B receives 3 points while Team A gets 0 points, the handicap is +3 and -0.

Handicaps are used because they make it easier for punters to predict the outcome of a match, lowering their risk when placing a wager compared to regular odds betting such as 1X2 or Double Chance bets.

Bookmakers use handicaps to level the playing field and give punters a second chance if they have a terrible day at work or want to try their luck again inst better players.
