Football Moneyline Betting

You are thinking, "Why doesn't everyone just bet this way and win more money without the spread?" Well, Vegas wasn't built because casino operators like to lose or like to give away money.

How does NFL moneyline betting work?

It goes like this.

On the point spread, the Saints would be favored by about 4 points.

That translates into a moneyline of about -200 for the favorite and +170 for the underdog.

If you bet $100 on the underdog Bucs, you would turn a $170 profit.

If you have $100 to bet, you would make a $50 profit on the Saints.
