No. Even though you can sign up to do HITS on mTurk without taking a test, you can't necessarily get access to all the jobs without first qualifying for the m.

How do taxes work?

Each requester will take note of your quality, and they are free to reject any HITS you work on that aren't up to their standards. Unfortunately, incorrect HITS don't qualify for payment.

Unfortunately, some requesters are very dishonest and will intentionally not accept all your HITS just so they don't have to pay you for everything. This is a chance I don't like taking, and it's another reason why I don't do so much work here.

Despite all this, I have been paid for more HITS than I have not been paid for, and I do think it's a good way to earn a little extra Amazon money here and there. One of my favorite things to do on Amazon mTurk that I find to be worth the time are the mTurk surveys.
