I have played a lot of different fighting game series I am a huge fan of the fighting games playing them since the original Mortal Kombat days. I just loved Street Fighter 2 to death I can't explain the amount of hours I spent on that game and how much fun I had with my cousins when playing SF II with them.

Capcom also changed its controls and combos so the veteran players would have to learn and master all over again to be honest that would not have been a problem for me if the A.

Plus the game has a lack of modes where are team battle, 2 on 2 fights, Mission or Challenge mode and an actual story mode none of that is in the game plus the roster is very thin and here I was thinking they would expand the roster by a large number, there are only 4 new characters in total that's it.

But the anime cutscenes just look terrible and I mean terrible it looks like I am watching a cartoon show on cartoon network only a lot worse.

All those scenes look tedious and corny and lip syncing is also a problem during the scene can't they have just made the characters look like they do during the gameplay because that would have been so much better. I in the arcade mode.
